

Saw no cards about the bodies; stayed there 10 minutes (707).
Dr. Hall's right hand rested near Mrs. Mills' shoulder (707).
Looked as if clothing had been properly arranged (707-8).
Saw Totten but not Hubbard (708).

After identifying bodies and leaving Lane saw Mr. Hubbard, Senator Florence and James Neilson (708).

Saw no Carpenders (708).

About 15 people were at the scene who walked all about the bodies but no one touched them (709).

Left before Totten (709).

Senator Florence was in Phillips Lane, Messrs. Hubbard and Neilson in De Russey Lane (710).

Mills told Deiner that Mrs. Hall told Mills that Dr. Hall was in South Jersey doing institutional work (710).

Deiner re-wrote original story which mentioned Mrs. Mills' throat being cut (710).

Neither Mr. Harry Carpenter nor Mr. William Stevens were at the scene of the crime at any time when Deiner was there (711).
